

Do not think of changing existing laws regulating how many media outlets a single entity (corporation) can own. I am appalled to learn of FCC corruption. These are the public airwaves. The Democracy is gone if the bottom line is money. There are many public spirited reasons to own a radio or tv station besides money. I intend to make this issue one i talk about to everyone i know.